

MILLERS IN THE TENTH

KANSAS CITY DROPS THE FIRST GAME AT MINNEAPOLIS.

Team No. 1 Played Like Four-Time Winners, but Carey's Homer in the Tenth Inning Won the Game.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Aug. 8.—(Special.) Manager James Manning's ball team No. 1 surprised the fans by playing like four-time winners, and the game was in the air until Carey's homer in the tenth ended the contest.

The flawless practice of the Blues deceived everyone into expecting an uninteresting game, but expectations were not realized, for the entire team while continually giving about team No. 2 played as if their positions depended on the day's work. This fast playing blanked the Millers in the first two rounds, and until the third they could not get a man by first base. Andrews was the only Miller to get even that far, and he was retired at second on a fast double by Reilly, Rothfuss and Gangel. Carey started the real playing of the Blues in the first, after Hulen had been retired, facing the ball out for three strikes. Rothfuss flew out, but Miller and Gangel followed with singles, and this, coupled with Miller's steal, scored two runs. The batting of Barrett and Gangel, a single and an error, gave them another in the third, and this ended their scoring until the sixth.

The Millers started their run-getting in the third, and by steady plugging, tied the score in the fifth. Carey, however, with a hit for two sacks, but the fast work of the Blues' infield retired the next two men. With two out, Fisher hit for another base, and this made the Millers' total five. But the Blues opened up again in the sixth, and hits by Rothfuss, Reilly and Stricklett gave them the lead. The Blues' infield gave them the eighth, after two men were out, and scored the run that tied the score, and then in the tenth, after one man was gone, Carey drove the ball over the fence for four sacks.
